

The Alexandria Human Rights Commission

Presents a film screening and panel discussion on...

"Dare Not Walk Alone"

"...tells the story of the heroic but often overlooked protests by black and white civil rights supporters in 1964 in Saint Augustine, Florida, and the inequalities that persist to this day in the local African American community."

Tuesday, February 17, 2015
7:00-9:00pm

Alexandria Black History Museum
902 Wythe Street
Alexandria, VA

For more information on the Alexandria Human Rights Commission, visit:
<http://alexandriava.gov/humanrights>

Alexandria Human Rights Commission Alexandria Office of Human Rights

The City strives to comply with the provisions of the ADA.
To request a reasonable accommodation, contact mike.hatfield@alexandriava.gov

421 King St, Suite 400
Alexandria, VA 22314
Phone: 703.746.3140
www.alexandriava.gov